About Me

I've been a multi-platform content creator for nine years, and during that time I have explored game development, traveled the world, led production on modeling projects and have been at the forefront of multiple trends on Twitch. I'm confident both in front and behind the camera. While streaming horror, indie, and obscure retro games, I interact enthusiastically with my audience. I'm seeking sponsorships in apparel, swimwear, accessories, self-care, audiobooks, travel, and tech.

My Audience

My audience is millennial and gen-x American and German men. They are tech-literate and stay current on popular media trends. They show appreciation to me and the women in their lives.
